

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It has tremendously improved our time at home. We rarely get a solicitation at home and it used to be several every night - especially at meal time. The Telephone Privacy law has been great - please do not change this for Indiana. Our telephone privacy is very important to us. Thank you.